WOMEN AT WORK

More women are working in California than ever before—an estimated 350,000. Of these, 281,300 are in industries. This latter figure has leaped from 87,000 in March of 1940.

But in spite of this increase, the number of feminine employees in our State is far behind our proportion for the country as a whole. In other words, we have about 6 per cent of the total national population in California, but we have only 2 per cent of the nation's 17,000,000 working women.

This accounts in some degree for the desperate labor shortage which continues to plague the Coast. The question is: What is the remedy?

In some Eastern cities housewives were appealed to through door-to-door campaigns. Many were found who were willing to work but thought they couldn't do anything to help. When convinced that they could render real service, they accepted full or part-time jobs.

Not all women find it possible to work in shipyards or factories, but they can help in stores and other businesses vital to the home front. For instance, the retail food industry has been recognized as so important that in several California areas the War Manpower commission has placed it in the "essential to the war effort" category, giving its employees the same vital status as that of war plant workers.

Here is but one of the many close-to-home businesses in which women can perform a genuine service—and incidentally increase the family income.

The sooner more women are willing to leave home—even if only for a few hours a day—the sooner we'll win this war and bring our boys back home.

"Date Conscious"? You'd Better Be --

Here is a list of those ration dates, which make calendar-watchers of all local housewives, motorists, or, in fact, anyone who wishes to eat, drive his car, or buy an occasional pair of shoes.

August 16—stamp 14 in War Book One, good for 5 pounds of sugar, became valid; good through October.

September 22—No. 8 coupons for A book holders became valid. Good for 3 gallons of gasoline, each.

September 26—brown stamps C in Book Three became valid, good through October 30.

October 3—brown stamps D became valid; good through October 30.

October 10—brown stamps E became valid; good through October 30.

October 17—brown stamps F became valid; good through October 30.

October 30—brown stamps C, D, E, and F expire.

October 31—last date to use stamps Nos. 15 and 16 in Book One, each good for 5 pounds of canning sugar. Stamp No. 14 also expires.

October 31—shoe stamp 18 (in War Ration Book One) was to have expired but OPA extends expiration date indefinitely.

October 31—tire inspection deadline for B book holders.

October 31—brown stamps H in Book Three become good for meats, fats, etc.; good through December 4.

November 1—housewives will start using green stamps A, B, and C in War Ration Book Four for processed foods. The stamps will be valid through December 20.

November 1—Book Three "airplane" series stamp No. 1 becomes valid; good for one pair of shoes.

November 1—stamp No. 29 in Book Four becomes good November 1, and will be good for 5 pounds of sugar through January 15, 1944.

November 20—blue stamps X, Y, and Z valid through this date.

November 21—No. 8 gasoline coupons good for 3 gallons each through this date.

Do you read the "papers"? ?

Certainly, everyone reads the "papers" for latest news, these days. But does your copy of the papers include local news of your neighbors, your city government, your home defense efforts, announcements by YOUR stores?

Not unless you read The Daly City Record, it doesn't. For San Francisco news is not Daly City news. Tax rates, civilian defense regulations, city government news (even county government news) from San Francisco do not apply in Daly City. You won't find your school news, organizational activities, etc., in San Francisco newspapers.

Julia says—
Give a
HALLOWE'EN PARTY!

OF COURSE we all know there's a war on—but in a way the war makes it even more important that we give the children a chance to observe Halloween in a fitting manner. It seems to me the youngsters definitely feel, even if they aren't aware of it, the tension and excitement of war-time living. And it's a lot wiser to have them celebrate the Witches' Eve right in the home than to let them roam around the streets where there's always a possibility of their getting into trouble on Halloween.

Why not suggest the theme of a special party to them, let them work out the details themselves and have their friends in for an exciting (but safe) evening?

For instance, a Pirates' Party! Let the invitations be written in blood-red ink... decorate with skull and bones... warn of spooks... insist that every guest wear some part of a pirate costume.

... costume details could include: fierce false mustaches... bandanas tied on the head pirate-style... cardboard rings in ears... black patch on eye... house decorations may involve: paper skulls... skeletons... bones... red lights or candles.

... entertainment can be as varied as imagination allows, for example: a darkened "cave of the winds," where a vacuum cleaner moans and each guest shakes hands with a chicken's claw... blindfolded guests "kiss the binnacle" three times, twice kissing a tin pan but the third time dipping the face into a bowl of flour... "walking the plank" (the plank is held just free of the floor while the young guest, blindfolded, climbs onto it; the plank is rocked while the guest is told to walk forward on it, over deep water; then the guest is made to jump and finds he was still only three inches over the floor!)...

... the "treasure," of course, is exciting Halloween refreshment, and here are some suggestions:

Evil-Eye Sandwiches

(Peanut Butter and Jelly or Jam, in Halloween Cut-outs)

Greg

(Hot Chocolate or Cocoa)

Pieces of Eight

(Molasses Jack-o'-Lantern Cookies)

Cannon Balls

(Popcorn or Popcorn Balls)

And by the time that's all over, it's too late to get into trouble, outdoors!

LEMONS INTRODUCE DOROTHY

FOUR LEMONS FOR THIS HONEY-PIE! I THOUGHT YOU SAID THEY WERE GOOD ONES.

THEY OUGHT TO BE! I BOUGHT A DOZEN OF THE MOST EXPENSIVE ONES THE GROCER HAD...

THEY LOOKED GOOD SO I THOUGHT THEY'D BE FINE FOR FLAVORING!

WELL, WHEN WE'RE USING VALUABLE SHORTENING AND EGGS FOR THIS SPECIAL PIE, IT'S JUST TOO BAD WE CAN'T HAVE JUICY LEMONS.

SHE CERTAINLY USED ENOUGH LEMONS! THEY COST PLENTY A DOZEN BUT WEREN'T JUICY.

WHY DOROTHY LEMONS BY THE DOZEN? THAT'S OLD-FASHIONED! NOWADAYS WHEN YOU BUY LEMONS YOU BUY THEM BY WEIGHT. IT'S THE JUICE THAT'S HEAVY, AND THAT'S WHAT YOU WANT.

...SO MY FRIEND RECOMMENDED I BUY FRESH FRUITS AND VEGETABLES, HERE, BY THE POUND.

YOUR FRIEND IS RIGHT, MAM. LEMONS AREN'T THE ONLY THING—IT'S MORE SATISFACTORY TO BUY ALL PRODUCE BY WEIGHT. CAN'T MISS GETTING YOUR MONEY'S WORTH, THAT WAY!

Dorothy Made A Discovery Why Not You?

It's no secret that you get exactly what you pay for, when you buy fresh fruits and vegetables by weight! That's the way Safeway sells 'em. Stock up on Safeway produce this week!

STATUE OF LIBERTY

Fifty-seven years ago on October 28, 1886, the towering, majestic figure symbolizing liberty and the lasting friendship between America and France was unveiled in New York harbor before one million people.

The nearly three score years that have elapsed since that day have brought saddening changes into the world, but the statue still stands, liberty still lives, and the friendship between the two great nations goes on in spite of Nazi oppression that seeks to crush the very soul of France.

To the millions of immigrants who have poured through the portals of America from Europe, the Statue of Liberty has symbolized the freedom to live, to speak, to worship according to the dictates of their own hearts. To them it has meant opportunity such as they could never experience in the lands from which they came.

Today, more than ever, the Statue of Liberty embodies the courage and determination of free men the world over to hold aloft the torch of freedom so that all may walk in the light of true liberty.
